Summary: On September 17, 2002, James Anthony, Telecommunications Attorney for The Utility Reform Network (TURN), met with Cmmr. Brown in San Francisco. Also present were Robert Wullenjohn, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, and Bob Finkelstein, TURN Supervising Attorney. TURN representatives stated that both Pacific Bell and Verizon California Incorporated (Verizon) are mistaken: their interpretation of the legal prohibition on retroactive ratemaking is wrong. TURN representatives explained that the proposed decision's establishment of a memorandum account making Verizon's earnings subject to refund after the effective date of the decision avoids the prohibition. TURN representatives further stated that even in the absence of the memorandum account, the Commission can still lawfully adjust rates based on the accounting misallocations uncovered in the audit for the period 1996-1998.
